Miss Arkansas Wins Swim Suit Title

By Philip Wechsler Associated Press Writer ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — The country may have lost an Olympic gold medal winner Wednesday night but possibly gained a Miss America.

"I would give up the chance to make the Olympics next year for Miss America, but either way it's a great thrill to represent your country," said Miss Indiana, Mary Lynn Haglund, after she won the talent division with a dazzling display of ice skating.

Miss Arkansas, 6-foot-tall Sharon Ann Evans, who thought she didn't stand a chance because of "those long legs of mine," shared honors in the opening competition of the Miss America pageant by winning the swim suit division. Sharon, 20, of North Little Rock, is the tallest girl ever to compete in the pageant.

Skating on a 16-by-16 foot rink on the convention hall stage, Miss Indiana received a rousing ovation from 6,200 spectators with her ice ballet and frugging.

Lynn, as she prefers to be called, started skating at nine and won her first title three years later. She is trying out for the 1968 Olympics. The 19-year-old brunette lives in Peewaukee, Wis., but represents Indiana because she attends Butler University. After graduation she hopes either for a professional skating career or to teach skating.

"I would have gone professional before but I wanted to retain my amateur status to compete for the Olympics," she said in an interview.

Miss Arkansas, 19, who aspires for a diplomatic career after graduating from Ouachita Baptist University, said her height no longer bothers her.

"When I was younger I spurted up and then I had a complex, but God makes everybody and he wants everybody to use and be proud of their natural talents," Sharon said.

Miss Arkansas displayed her 37-25-37, 135-pound figure in a one piece blue bathing suit.

"I had the feeling everybody would see only my freckles," she drawled. "I swear those freckles are three-dimensional."

The 50 state queens have another two nights of preliminary competition before the 10 semi-finalists are selected Saturday. Then one of the lucky girls will succeed the current Miss America, Jane Anne Jayroe of Oklahoma.

New American Opera Company Going Out

By MARY CAMPBELL NEW YORK (AP)—The Metropolitan Opera National Company, for two seasons just past, gave young American singers a chance to learn their business without going to Europe and it gave Americans in some 70 cities a chance to attend opera.

But it also lost whopping sums of money and last December the parent Met decided to stop the music.

With the mighty Met giving up, it looked as if no one else would try to round up financing and bookings, rehearsal time and space, singers, musicians and production staff to create a company to replace the Met National Company. But someone has—Miss Sarah Caldwell of Boston.

The Met worked for a year before its touring company made its debut. Miss Caldwell, working only since February, sends the new American National Opera Company out this month. Its first stop will be Indianapolis on Sept. 15.

In Boston she's considered an indefatigable miracle worker. She started the Boston Opera Group 10 years ago, at age 31, with $5,000 donated by interested Bostonians. She lost $20,000 the first year. But the onetime violin prodigy, native of Maryville, Mo., and graduate of the New England Conservatory, combines money-raising ability and knowledge and love of opera with optimism and daring.

Today, her finger in every part of the production pie, her Opera Company of Boston draws 9,000 subscribers and praise from music critics who travel from all over the country to attend productions like last season's American premiere of Arnold Schoenberg's "Moses and Aron" and a mod staging of Igor Stravinsky's "The Rake's Progress."

Instead of touring all season, the new company will tour in the fall in the East, Midwest and South, booked by Sol Hurok, spend midwinter in Boston performing and rehearsing two ad-

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! in this newspaper.

TEEN VOTE IN "S.O.S." Dear Teens and Nearly-Teens: The last vote is counted. S.O.S.—STAMP OUT STEADYING—Is it!

Big, distinctive buttons—blue and red lettering on a white background, will be available soon.

For those who came in late: Nearly 1,000 young people have asked me to help them organize "Stamp Out Steadying" clubs because they feel they're being pushed into "steadyding" too soon.

S.O.S. is an organization for those who want to play the field, date without feeling tied down, and wait a while before they settle for one. It is NOT, repeat NOT, a reform movement, and it is NOT an adult idea foisted on teens. YOU kids thought of it and pushed it yourselves. To tell the truth, I went along somewhat reluctantly, and only because so many of you kept prodding.

Almost everyone will be an S.O.S. drop-out someday, and many of you won't ever drop in.

The local clubs won't recruit members, but those who decide to join can hopefully expect more fun than before—what with mixer dances, parties, a worth cause or two, and most of all—casual dating!—H.

P.S. I will tell you soon how to obtain an S.O.S. button.

Dear Helen: I'm almost 18 and my boy friend is nearly 19. We went together 16 months and were planning to be married in a year.

But he started thinking things over and discovered that his love for me is more like a father for a daughter. Both of us being understanding, we talked about the problem and I realized it's me. I'm very immature because I've always been protected and babied by my folks.

We agreed it would be foolish to marry under these circumstances. But we're still friends,

He is going in the army and we'll write and date when he's home on leave.

Dear P: I think your boy friend means, "We BOTH need time to grow up." But being an immature male, he puts all the burden on you.

These next two years will bring maturity you both need. Keep writing, keep hoping, and keep on growing up. You'll discover great changes in each other when he comes home for good.—H.

Dear Helen: In my second year at college I dated a man of 23 who meant the world to me. He told me he loved me and I, like a fool, fell for it. I convinced myself it was okay as long as you really loved the guy. Isn't that what modern sociologists and psychologists say?—"If you really care and it hurts no one, pre-marital sex isn't wrong."

But now he doesn't call any more and I know my very special love was just another experience to him. I still cry myself to sleep at night. How can I get over him?—HELP

Dear Helen: Isn't it a shame those "modern thinkers" forgot to add, "But it always hurts SOMEBODY!" Toss out the guilt and self-pity, dear, and start feeling honest anger at a low-down man who conned you. It's the only way to knock him out of your dreams.—H.

QUICK QUIZ

Q—Why is the Wailing Wall of significance to the Jewish people?
A—The Great Mosque of Omar stands where Solomon's Temple once stood. All that is left of the temple is the Wailing Wall, where orthodox Jews gather to lament the passing of their early days of glory.

Q—In what city did Confederate President Jefferson Davis convene his full cabinet for the last time?
A—Charlotte, N.C., in 1865.

4 Teams in Virtual 4 Way Tie

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
First place in the American League is like a can of sardines, an elephant in a Volkswagen, a telephone booth holding 84 college students—crowded.

Minnesota, Chicago, Detroit and Boston all squeezed into the top spot Wednesday night in a virtual four-way tie which left baseball buffs scratching their heads to recall a similar jam so late in the season.

It took a crowbar to get a percentage point between the four as the Twins and White Sox each sported 79-61 records for a .561 percentage and the Tigers and Red Sox panted that point behind at .560 with 79-72 marks.

"We're purposely doing this," says Chicago Manager Eddie Stanky with a smile. "We want to keep football off pace."

On purpose or not the Tigers rushed in by whipping Kansas City in a two-night doubleheader 8-5 and 6-3; the White Sox entered on tip-toes, nudging California 3-2 in 13 innings; the Red Sox made it by not playing, and the Twins made it all possible by losing an afternoon game to Cleveland 3-2.

No other games were scheduled.

In the National League, St. Louis beat the New York Mets 3-1, Los Angeles overcame the Chicago Cubs 6-3, San Francisco blanked Houston 2-0, Philadelphia whopped Cincinnati 9-0 and Atlanta tripped Pittsburgh 4-1 before losing 4-1 in a twilight affair.

Manager Cal Ermer of the Twins took his loss in stride and counted on Cleveland to help clean out the crowd.

"I hope Joe Adcock (Indian manager) plays Chicago the same way he played us," Ermer said. "He saved his best pitchers for us, knocked our hitters down and played for keeps. Cleveland has seven games left with the White Sox and four left with Boston, so the Indians could help us a great deal."

His losing pitcher, Dave Boswell, did some brooding after Luis Tiant outdueling him with a seven-hitter and singled in the two decisive runs in the fourth inning.

"I was told not to throw fastballs to Tiant because he was supposed to be a good fastball hitter," Boswell said. "So he hit a high slider."

The Twins managed two runs off Tiant, 9-9, in the sixth on Rod Carew's two-run bloop single before Tiant shut the door.

Detroit took full advantage behind Eddie Mathews and Earl Wilson.

Mathews, an old hand at helping win pennants, drove in three runs in the opener with two homers, the second capping a four-run seventh inning and snapping a 4-4 tie. His first shot tied the game 2-2 before Ramon Webster and Dick Green homered for the A's in the fifth.

Wilson made sure of becoming the first 20-game winner in the major leagues by belting a tie-breaking two-run homer in the seventh inning of the nightcap for a 4-3 lead.

The White Sox, as is their way, made the scene the hard way against still ambitious California, which had won four straight and seven of eight and could have climbed within five games of the top with a victory.

The Sox needed two runs in the 11th on pinch hitter Smoky Burgess' run-scoring double and a passed ball that let in another run to get to the 13th. Then Duane Josephson singled with one out in the 13th and Ken Berry ended the 4-hour, 43-minute battle with a run-scoring double off Pete Grimsby, the sixth California pitcher.

The Angels scored first in the 11th as two runs scored on Bubba Morton's single and a ground out.

Dates Are Set for the World Series

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball Commissioner William D. Eckert has announced the dates for this year's World Series but the bunched American League race could cause a change in plans.

If the pennant is decided when the season winds up Oct. 1, the Series will begin Wednesday, Oct. 4 in the American League winner's park. The second game will be played Thursday, Oct. 5.

After a day off for travel, the Series will resume Saturday, Oct. 7 in the National League park. Game four will be played Sunday, Oct. 8 and the fifth game if needed, will be Monday, Oct. 9. If a sixth and seventh game are needed, they will be played Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 11-12.

An American League pennant tie could scramble those plans considerably. Under AL regulations, should two teams tie for the pennant they would play a best-of-3 series. If three teams tie, a maximum of five games could be played in a round robin series in which teams losing two games would be eliminated.

In the event of a four-way deadlock, two sets of best-of-3 series will be played with the survivors meeting in another best-of-3 playoff for the title.

After Wednesday's games, all four American League contenders, Minnesota, Chicago, Boston and Detroit, were in a virtual first-place tie.

Playoff plans, should they be necessary, will be announced by the American League in about 10 days.

Commissioner Eckert also gave authority to the St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago White Sox, Detroit Tigers, Boston Red Sox and Minnesota Twins to print World Series tickets.

The Cardinals hold a commanding 11½-game lead in the National League.

Newest Thing in Tennis Is Steel Racket

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — The newest thing in tennis is the steel racket.

It's a tubular steel frame with gut strings. Many of the top players are using the weapon in the National Championships this week at West Side Tennis Club.

"It's progress — it's the same as steel shafts replacing wood shafts in golf," said Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, who is America's top-ranked competitor in the tournament.

Graebner is using one of the revolutionary things. So are Wimbledon champion Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., Rosemary Casals of San Francisco, Gene Scott of New York and others.

"It's much lighter than the wood racket and I think it has

Briles Takes Up Slack for Cards

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
When a line drive fractured Bob Gibson's right leg two months ago, the St. Louis Cardinals' pennant hopes appeared certain to crack at the seams.

Then Nelson Briles threw his right arm into the breach... and never let go.

Now Gibson's ready to put his best foot forward again, but there's no relief in sight for Briles.

Briles, an unheralded member of the bullpen brigade until July 15, when Gibson was felled by a Roberto Clemente liner, rolled to his sixth straight victory Wednesday night, scattering five hits as the National League-leading Cardinals trimmed the New York Mets 3-1.

While Briles was limiting the Mets to an unearned run, San Francisco's Gaylord Perry and Philadelphia's Jim Bunning were throwing blanks at Houston and Cincinnati, respectively.

Perry beat the Astros 2-0 with a three-hitter, running his scoreless streak to 34 innings, and Bunning flipped a six-hitter in stopping the Reds 9-0 for the 38th shutout of his career. Los Angeles downed the Chicago Cubs 6-3 and Atlanta split a doubleheader at Pittsburgh, winning the opener 4-1 and dropping the nightcap by the same score.

Detroit took a doubleheader from Kansas City 8-5 and 6-3, the Chicago White Sox edged California 3-2 in 13 innings and Cleveland upended Minnesota 3-2 in American League action.

Briles, a stocky right-hander who finished the 1966 season with a 4-15 mark, is 11-5 this year, with seven victories in nine decisions since he stepped into the starting rotation. He has completed three of his last four starts and leads St. Louis starters with a sparkling 2.50 ERA.

The Cards were four games in front when Gibson was hurt. They lead the pack by 1½ games today.

Gibson returns to action tonight against the Mets. But Briles will not lose his spot in the rotation. Instead, Manager Red Schoendienst said, southpaw Larry Jaster will go to the bullpen.

Briles and New York's Jack Fisher were locked in a 1-1 duel until the eighth inning, when the Cards' pitcher singled, took second when left fielder Tommy Davis bobbled the ball, reached third on Lou Brock's punt and scored on a sacrifice fly by Curt Flood. Mike Shannon's ninth-inning homer provided an insurance run.

Perry, who had pitched 16 scoreless innings in the Giants' 1-0, 21-inning victory over Cincinnati last Friday night and had shut out Los Angeles in his previous start, brought his record to 12-15 by taming the Astros. He also capped the Giants' deciding two-run rally in the seventh inning with a run-scoring single.

Bunning, 15-12, added 10 strikeouts to his NL lead and pulled within one shutout of the Dodgers' Don Drysdale, who leads active pitchers with a career total of 39. The Phillies backed the veteran right-hander with a 13-hit attack in thumping Cincinnati ace Jim Maloney.

The Dodgers struck for four runs in the eighth inning to overtake the Cubs, Ron Fairly triggering the rally with a homer and Ron Hunt breaking a 3-3 tie with an RBI single. Bob Bailey and Willie Davis homered for Los Angeles and Ron Santo delivered all the Chicago runs with a homer and single.

Al McBean scattered six hits and knocked in three runs with a triple and bases-loaded walk, leading the Pirates past Atlanta after Denny Lemaster won the opener for the Braves with an eight-hitter.

helped me tremendously," said Mrs. King. "I have much better touch with it."

"The big advantage, I find, is the uniformity of the rackets. I could never get two wooden frames alike enough to suit me. The steel rackets are manufactured to precision measurements."

It's the first major change in tennis equipment since the sport was born and is the brain-child of Rene Lacoste, the famous French Davis Cup ace in the 1920s who now is a millionaire aeronautical tycoon in France and manufacturer of popular sports apparel.

Lacoste thought of the idea of making the rackets of tubular steel rather than solid steel, such as the rackets which came out about a quarter of a century ago with steel strings.

Plenty of Football on Weekend

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer
Button up your overcoats, sports fans, because football weather is here. And with football weather, of course, comes football itself.

Tonight and tomorrow night football 1967 will be introduced to the local enthusiasts. Every team in junior and senior high school except the 7th grade squad will see action this week.

For the traveling fans, the Hope 'B' team will be going to take on the Spring Hill, La., 'B' team at Spring Hill this afternoon. Beginning at 5:45 p.m., the local supporters may watch a doubleheader. The first game pits the Hope 8th graders against Fouke Junior High, and at 7:30 the Bobkittens take the field to open the season against the Prescott Juniors. Both these contests will be played at Hammons Stadium.

Then, to be sure, the Hope High Bobcats open their home schedule on Friday night, playing host to the Prescott Curley Wolves. All home games will begin at 8:00 p.m. this year, due to Daylight Savings Time. The later starting time applies to the Bobcats only.

Head Bobcat Coach Freddie Glaze announced that the 7th grade football players, 53 of them, will be the special guests of the Hope Bobcats for the Prescott game tomorrow night, and they will be seated on the sideline throughout the game.

Green Bay, Los Angeles are Picked

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK (AP) — Green Bay will win the West. Who else? The Packers already have installed an electric heating system to warm the field for the Dec. 31 title game.

The Packers convinced both the NFL and the AFL last season when they added the Super Bowl to their triumphs in the National Football League.

Green Bay's opponent on New Year's Eve probably will be Dallas. Before that game, they must dispose of the Los Angeles Rams, who are the pick here to take the Coastal Division of the West.

It looks like a big season for the snow boot and parka set. Green Bay winds up its regular season at home, Dec. 19. If they win the Central Division, as expected, they play the Coastal winner at Green Bay Sat. Dec. 23. If they win that they play the Eastern champs Dec. 31, once more at Green Bay.

Here's the way the West looks from here:

- CENTRAL
1. Green Bay
 2. Detroit
 3. Minnesota
 4. Chicago
- COASTAL
1. Los Angeles
 2. San Francisco
 3. Baltimore
 4. Atlanta

It may take a year or two for Donny Anderson and Jim Graebner to make people forget about Paul Hornung and Jim Taylor. It may. The Gold Dust Twins are ready to cut loose after watching from the bench most of last year.

When Bart Starr can't play, Zeke Bratkowski can do the job as the Dallas Cowboys discovered in their Aug. 28 exhibition game. The Pack's 20-3 victory in preseason convinced many Texans that last year's game in the Cotton Bowl was no mistake.

Defense is the big item at Green Bay. Willie Davis, Henry Jordan and Co., plus those three linebackers and a talented deep defense shut down tight when the enemy threatens.

The runner-up to Green Bay is a wide open scramble. Minnesota appears to have troubles at quarterback, now that Fran Tarkenton is gone. Perhaps, Bud Grant, the new coach, will find the answer early but the safe thing to do is to give him time to get things together by mid-season.

Despite their shocking defeat by Denver in the first NFL-AFL game, Detroit appears to be putting things together. Whether Joe Schmidt finally settles on Karl Sweetan or Milt Plum, the No. 1 quarterback will have fine targets in Pat Studstill, Gail Cogdill and Bill Malinchak.

Much depends on Mel Farr and the injured Nick Eddy, two prize rookies. The Lions' defense is getting old together but still can rise to the occasion.

Chicago has many problems, aggravated by retirements, injuries and trades.

Calm About Meeting Emerson

By WILL GRIMSLEY
FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — "He'll be more scared of me than I'll be of him—the pressure will all be on his side of the court."

He may be churning inside but scholarly looking Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, is outwardly full of calm and confidence as he looks toward his quarter-final battle with Australia's veteran Roy Emerson Friday in the National Tennis Championships.

Seeded seventh, the highest ranking of the thin American threat, the 23-year-old Graebner doesn't figure to have much chance against the nut-brown, 31-year-old Queenslander, who won this title in 1961 and 1964 and who many think will do it again.

Graebner, booted off the U.S. Davis Cup team a year ago because of his violent temper, swept into the quarter-finals for the second straight year Wednesday by beating Mark Cox, England's No. 3 Davis Cup ace, 6-3, 6-3, 2-6, 6-4.

"I have a much better attitude now," Clark, once known as a doubles specialist, said. "I just go in there and bang away. I don't let little things bug me any more. Also, I'm using one of these new steel rackets. I think it has helped my game tremendously."

Graebner is one of four U.S. survivors. The other three were scheduled for fourth-round action today. Ron Holmberg, the balding veteran from West Point, N.Y., played Gene Scott of St. James, N.Y., in one match while Bobby Lutz, the Los Angeles youngster, faced South Africa's Bob Hewitt in another.

The remaining men's fourth-round matches sent Wimbledon champ and No. 1 seed John Newcombe of Australia against Ray Moore of South Africa and left-handed Owen Davidson of Australia against Mexico's Rafael Osuna, winner here in 1963.

Graebner was joined in the quarter-finals Wednesday by Emerson, who toyed with Marcelo Lara of Mexico, 6-4, 6-2, 6-1; Ron Barnes of Brazil, who beat Australia's Bill Bowrey, 7-5, 3-6, 9-7, 7-5, and Jan Leschly, the remarkable 26-year-old Danish druggist, who scored his third straight upset in beating Thomas Koch of Brazil, 4-6, 6-3, 6-8, 6-2, 6-1.

The lower bracket of the women's division is slated to go into the semifinals today. Second-seeded Ann Haydon Jones of Britain plays 18-year-old Peaches Bartkowicz of Hamtramck, Mich., and Leslie Turner of Australia, No. 5, goes against Rita Bentley of Britain.

Wimbledon champion Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., gained the quarter-finals Wednesday, beating Virginia Wade of Britain 6-1, 6-4. On Friday she will play Annette Van Zyl of South Africa, who won over Carole Graebner, Clark's wife, 6-4, 6-4.

Françoise Durr of France, who won over 18-year-old Lynne Abbes of Orinda, Calif., 6-1, 5-7, 6-3, faces another U.S. junior,

Dr. Lester Stitzes, right, presents Jim Lockhart two tickets to the Arkansas-Texas Football game scheduled for Saturday, October 21st. Jim won the tickets for having sold the most memberships in the Annual Chamber of Commerce drive earlier in the year.

More Pro Grid Players Are Shuffled

Professional football teams continued to shuffle personnel Wednesday with several players cut by one club being picked up by another.

Miami of the American League claimed place kicker Booth Lusteg, who had been placed on waivers Tuesday by the Buffalo Bills. Lusteg, who scored 98 points last year on 19 of 39 field goals and 41 of 42 extra points, will battle veteran Gene Mingo for the Dolphins' placekicking job.

In the National League, another placekicker, Mac Percival, was dropped by Dallas and almost as quickly, claimed by Chicago.

Green Bay sliced fullback Jim Mankins and he was immediately claimed by Detroit. The Packers also traded tackle Dick Arndt to Pittsburgh for a half draft choice.

Los Angeles dropped a couple of familiar names. The Rams cut linebacker Dan Currie and tight end Bob Jencks and placed veteran defensive tackle Roosevelt Grier on the injured list.

Kansas City sent tight end Bill Masters to Buffalo and the Bills dropped defensive end Dave Daniels and tight end Bill McLeod.

Washington claimed Dick Smith, an offensive end and defensive back, who had been placed on waivers by Dallas. The Redskins made room for Smith by placing linebacker Larry Hendershot on waivers.

Valerie Ziegenfuss, who surprised with an easy 7-5, 6-1 victory over Judy Tegart of Australia.

Quaint Idea About Being a Real Pro

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Floyd Peters, who was voted the outstanding lineman in last January's National Football League Pro Bowl game, has a quaint idea of when a professional football player becomes a pro.

"You're not a pro until you have a championship ring on your finger and a scar on your knee. I have the scar. This is the year I get the ring," said the 225-pound defensive tackle of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Peters, a graduate of San Francisco State, talked about his rugged nine-year climb to recognition as one of the league's top defensive linemen.

"Professional football involves a great deal of emotion," noted the 31-year-old Peters, who came up in 1958 as an eighth draft choice with the Baltimore Colts.

"I have no trouble getting emotional," he observed. "I just look across the line of scrimmage and see that quarterback, and think to myself how much money he's getting and of the Cadillac he probably has in the parking lot."

"I think of how he doesn't have to exert himself as much as we linemen. I see him stand back there with his fragile body and challenge us to come and get him. I think, here's a guy I can hit without getting arrested. I get emotional."

Peters recovered from 1965 knee surgery to help the Eagles tie for second place in the East last season. He led the team in initial tackles with 76, assisting on 64 others.

Ambassador for U.S. Not Widely Known

By PETER O'LOUGHLIN
BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — A likely candidate for the "quiet America" title, Graham Anderson Martin is one of Uncle Sam's least-known ambassadors. But his four years in Thailand, ending this month, have had a major impact on the Vietnam war and probably on Thailand's own future.

Not yet 55, the man from Mars Hill, N.C., has served 20 years in the U.S. foreign service after earlier stints as a reporter and in such Washington outfits as Franklin D. Roosevelt's NRA — National Recovery Administration — and Social Security Board. He turned to diplomacy after winding up as a colonel in World War II.

Although Martin's job has been closely tied to the controversial air war in Vietnam, he is little known to the public either in Thailand or the United States. That is the way he likes it.

He personally won approval for the U.S. Air Force to bomb

North Vietnam from Thai bases. He won this cooperation from the Thais by playing down the U.S. military role.

He avoided ruffling the Thais by saying nothing in public that could offend them.

This meant saying almost nothing at all in public. Martin has never held a news conference and has made only two speeches in four years. Many Americans living in Thailand would not recognize him in the street.

This diplomacy without publicity, according to the men who work for him, accounts in large measure for his record as ambassador. The conservative Thais had been accustomed to more ebullient Americans.

When Martin came to Thailand American involvement in the kingdom of 32 million people was a 4,000-man military aid group and a declining economic assistance program.

On his departure there will be 40,000 U.S. servicemen, about 400 fighter-bombers, wings of B52 heavy bombers and battalions of civilian advisers spread throughout the country.

Senior members of the embassy staff say Thailand was at a political crossroads when Martin arrived.

The Thai government felt Washington had made conces-

Editor's Note—Twenty five years ago the race for the atomic bomb began in Oak Ridge, Tenn. Following is an assessment of America's present nuclear weapons.

sions to the Communists at the 1962 Geneva conference which neutralized Laos.

With this in mind they were doubtful that Americans would "go the distance" in the growing Vietnam war. The Thais were surrounded by enemies and facing a Communist insurgency at home. China was threatening a "war of liberation" in support of the terrorist movement in northeast provinces.

Martin convinced the Thais that the United States intended to stand firm in Asia. He further convinced them that U.S. fighter-bombers should be allowed to use Thai bases.

clear arms posture—and a hint of things to come—given by Atomic Energy Commission and Defense Department officials.

Weapons of the Future Bit By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Even as America's weapons makers revamp and improve stockpiled nuclear weapons, work is under way on exotic new types of armament.

Government officials say future objectives include not only the so-called "neutron bomb"—once described as a kind of death-ray weapon—but also pure-fusion weapons that would not require atomic bomb triggers and thus would produce no radioactive fallout.

These and other developments concerning America's present nuclear arms posture came out in response to queries submitted to the Atomic Energy Commission by The Associated Press.

The AEC collaborated with the Defense Department in preparing its answers. AEC Chairman Glenn T. Seaborg and Brig. Gen. Edward B. Giller, director of the AEC's Division of Military Applications, were interviewed separately.

In addition to references to research work on the pure-fusion weapons and the neutron bomb, the AEC's written answers offered these further highlights:

—The American stockpile of "tens of thousands" of individual nuclear weapons includes nuclear antismine rockets, torpedoes and depth charges — weapons that have had little official mention in the past.

—Red China apparently has a "rational, well-organized" nuclear weapons development program—and conceivably could launch an intercontinental ballistic missile test vehicle before the end of this year.

—The United States still holds an over-all lead in nuclear weapons over the Soviet Union. Seaborg also referred to that over-all lead, but he cautioned:

"Weapons can become almost obsolete in comparison to those of a potential adversary. And that's why we need to test so frequently. We're rebuilding and re-working our stockpile constantly."

CRIME SUSPECTS ON VIDEO TAPE beats a straight photograph for identification purposes. Used in Miami, Fla., it is especially useful with accused violators of the law who disappear on bail before completion of identity. Suspects are asked questions during the filming, so viewers can hear their voices, too. Officers above are viewing bail jumpers before going on duty at a shift change.

Is there a difference in milk? You bet there is!

The best milk is the one that's best for your family. It's the one that will taste best to your children and give them the best possible nourishment.

Every milk has to meet certain standards. So, how do you tell which milk is best?

The surest way is to buy milk that has built a reputation for consistently good quality through more careful, more expensive handling and processing.

This is exactly what The Borden Company has been doing for over a hundred years. Borden's Milk is always better than it has to be!

Quality controls for Borden's Milk begin with the dairy farm and continue until the milk reaches you. In all, 23 separate tests are made for freshness, purity and flavor.

Government standards? Borden's exceeds them by putting almost 2 full cups of cream in every half-gallon carton to give your family a bonus in good taste and nourishment.

There are differences in milk just like a lot of other products... some less expensive... some without the rigid, high standards of quality which Borden's has.

Milk is too important for any kind of economy with your family. We think you'll agree that your children deserve the best.

our customers are nuts
about peanuts

They must be.

In fact, a lot of them must be because we buy over 40 million pounds of peanuts a year.

We sell millions of pounds of shell peanuts, more millions of pounds of canned and bagged peanuts.
Our Ann Page Division uses tons of them in their candy kitchens and for making peanut butter.

Our Jane Parker Bakeries use their share, too, in specialty cakes and cookies.

If you're nuts about peanuts, come to A&P.
You couldn't come to a better "nut house".

If you do, you may discover something else:
We're nuts about our customers.

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P?
It's one of many!

First Ladies of Vietnam Typical Asian

By KELLY SMITH
SAGON (AP) — The First Ladies of South Vietnam reflect the paradoxes among Asian womanhood.

Mrs. Nguyen Van Thieu, wife of the chief of state and president-elect, is a shy and modest housewife who stays in the background of the social and political world.

Mrs. Nguyen Cao Ky, wife of the premier and vice president-elect, is a fetching raven-haired beauty, one of the young Vietnamese who wear Paris clothes, have their noses reshaped and their eyes widened.

Each mirrors her husband's personality. Mrs. Thieu avoids the limelight but showed up at her husband's side for campaigning. The wife of the flamboyant Ky makes news wherever she goes, whether by wearing a black flight suit or taking her own photographs for the family scrapbook.

Mrs. Thieu grew up in the heavily populated Mekong delta south of Saigon in a town called My Tho on the muddy Mekong River. Its tree-lined streets and one-story pastel houses are a far different setting from the childhood of Mai Ky.

She was born near Hanoi, of a Buddhist family, and named Dang Thi Tuyet Mai. That means "cherry blossoms of the snow."

Her father was assassinated and at 13 she fled to South Vietnam when the Communists took over the North. She attended a private school in the mountain resort of Dalat, became an airline stewardess at 20, and later was named "Miss Air Vietnam."

She met Ky at a lavish ball celebrating his appointment as commander of the air force, danced with him, and fell in love. Ky was divorced from a French woman and the father of four. Mai was 11 years his junior.

Mai and Ky were married, against opposition from his family, and she set out to adapt herself to what she calls her husband's sweetheart—the air force, his country. She learned to copilot a DC3, to fire a pistol, to speak better English, and to relax in the presence of newsmen.

Mrs. Thieu, a Roman Catholic

Enrollment opening day in Hope Public School District 1-A is 2,801, according to Supt. James H. Jones. This represents a small increase over last year but this figure is expected to go up quickly. Last year's opening day 2,799 enrolled.

However, figures Mr. Jones, many elementary students haven't completed their immunization requirements and will enroll when this is done.

First day figures reveal a sizeable increase in Junior-Senior High enrollment and a drop in elementary schools.

In a country where this is not always popular, encouraged her fiancé—a young, handsome army officer—to convert.

He aspired to power in a country where power may mean death, imprisonment or family harassment, and she moved to Saigon knowing all this.

The Thieus have two children, a girl 13 and a boy 6, rarely seen at public functions. The Ky family includes his four children from his previous marriage, and their 16-month-old daughter, Duyen—a name meaning "the wonderful love story."

Both women wear Western and Vietnamese clothes and a Western hairstyle. Vietnamese women go to beauty parlors more often than Americans but rarely take an active public role. What they are said to do behind the scenes is another matter.

Seen privately, Mrs. Thieu—who speaks fluent English—is relaxed and chatty. Mrs. Ky is more comfortable in French but has learned English rapidly in the last year.

Like all women, they have weaknesses. Both are said to be Batman fans.

Livestock Show to Be Enlarged

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Clyde E. Byrd, vice president and general manager of the Arkansas Livestock Show Association, announced plans Wednesday for construction of a quarterhorse, stock car and trotting race tracks at the Livestock Show Grounds here.

No pari-mutuel betting will be permitted at the tracks, which may be completed before next year's Livestock Exposition, he said.

Byrd said the total cost of the project hadn't been determined.

The breeding and showing of quarterhorses could become as important to Arkansas as the raising of thoroughbreds is to Kentucky, Byrd said. Arkansas already is one of the top states in the field, he added.

Byrd said there also had been an increasing interest in stock car racing in the state.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — ABC and CBS introduced some new members of their television families Tuesday night and two of them looked rather like new models of other season's shows.

"Garrison's Gorillas" on ABC was the first premiere of the new network season and its format is evidently a blend of elements that have worked well—and often—before.

The recipe consists of one part "Combat"—men at war, uniforms, bullets spraying around, lots of dying Nazis—and one part "Mission Impossible" or even "Jericho"—specialists on tough assignments.

Garrison is the commanding officer—"the warden"—of a team of four convicts with special skills including burglary, swindling, assault and picking pockets, paroled for extraordinary military duty.

But where "Mission Impossible" emphasizes the slick way its team pulls off tough jobs, "Garrison's Gorillas" zoomed in on conflict and violence—setting fires to trains, hand-to-hand combat and, of course, bad guys by the score shot down by machine-gun bursts.

Ron Harper plays the title role, and his team are four good looking young men, all newcomers to television.

CBS' "Good Morning World" is an obvious attempt to recapture the spirit and mood of the "Dick Van Dyke Show" which would be nice to have. It has a number of the same behind-the-camera people, including Carl Reiner and Sheldon Leonard.

This time we have two personable, wisecracking disc jockeys with a wake-up radio show. The premiere was built around a gift sweater that unraveled. But this was a device on which to build a number of pretty funny scenes. One had Joby Baker, the married member of the team, trying to return the mess of wool to the haberdasher, and, although the haberdasher had all the lines, it came off very well. Ronnie Schell as Baker's co-star had little to do in the first program.

"The Dick Van Dyke Show" was such a slow starter it was almost canceled, and, given a little time, "Good Morning World" may also creep into the viewer's hearts. A first impression is that Billy De Wolfe, playing a cholerical radio station owner, may walk off with the comedy honors.

ABC's "N.Y.P.D." also had its first show, but since it conflicted with "Good Morning World," it will be reviewed here next week.

CBS' Red Skelton came back for his 17th television season

Gen. Gavin to Visit Battle Zone

WASHINGTON (AP) — While a persistent critic of President Johnson's Vietnam policy says he'll visit the battle zone at military invitation, a comparatively new critic became embroiled in a partisan fight here at home.

Retired Lt. Gen. James M. Gavin, who quit the Democratic Advisory Council in Massachusetts in a climax to his running feud with Johnson's war policies, said Tuesday he expects to visit South Vietnam in October or November.

But Gavin, a former Pentagon strategist and one-time U.S. ambassador to France, said he doubts the trip—reportedly set up by Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. troops in Vietnam—will change his mind.

Meanwhile, John M. Bailey, with his built-in cast of characters and marvelous pantomime skills. As usual, Red was funny and the musical numbers were imaginative and attractive.

"Hollywood Palace" joined ABC's Tuesday night lineup with a handsome, gay and frequently very funny variety hour. The best moments were host Bing Crosby and Milton Berle were breaking up—genuinely breaking up, a rare moment in television when breakups are written on the cue cards—at Jimmy Durante's clowning. It ought to do well in its new time period.

Democratic national chairman, accused Michigan Gov. George Romney of insulting "the integrity of two dedicated and honorable men in saying he was brainwashed during a 1965 trip to South Vietnam."

Bailey said Romney should apologize to Westmoreland and former U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge because "they were responsible for the briefings he received when he claims to have been brainwashed on the war."

Romney, considered a certain candidate for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination, said in a Monday television interview he had received "the greatest brainwashing that anybody can get when you go over to Vietnam."

The governor named no names, but attributed the brainwashing to "the generals" and "the diplomatic corps over there."

Pentagon figures released Tuesday show the North Vietnamese have at least quadrupled—to 200—the number of surface-to-air firing sites in the past year.

The so-called SAM missiles, supplied by Red China and the Soviet Union, have directly claimed few U.S. planes. But they force attacking planes off course and into deadly conventional antiaircraft fire, military sources say.

Romney Puts Himself in Bad Light

Some independent observers seem to think highly of Michigan Governor George Romney as a presidential possibility but your editor is not one of them.

Romney made his mark by revitalizing American Motors with accomplishments rather than words; but as a politician he appears to let words outrun deeds.

In the Detroit crisis he was quick to criticize President Johnson for being slow in putting down an armed revolt, inferring that the White House delayed answering Michigan's call for federal troops in order to first study the political effect. But his accusation fell flat because the governor had in the beginning sent Michigan's National Guard into Detroit with orders not to shoot even though Detroit police were already being fired upon. From this observation post it appeared that Romney convicted himself of the very thing of which he said the President was suspect.

And with this in his background the Michigan governor compounds his error by now introducing a political note on the Vietnam war, Romney, a Republican, says (1) He was "brainwashed" on his visit to the war zone, and (2) The Democratic administration isn't telling the people the truth about the war.

That there is civilian political interference with the military people who are supposed to be running the war is something most Americans do believe. But since it is generally true of all wars the credibility of the accusation in this particular war depends almost entirely upon the reputation of the accuser.

If a political housecleaning would help us in Vietnam then whoever starts it would be doing our country a good service. But if it's merely an attempt to make the war a reference point in a political campaign then it is a disservice—and Gov. Romney's interruptive remarks are about as welcome as a commercial in the midst of a television melodrama.

Sure, the governor was in Vietnam, and didn't like what he saw or heard. But so were others there. Romney is a Republican. But another governor in Vietnam was Philip A. Hoff, Democrat, of Vermont—and Hoff says Romney's words are "incredible."

So Romney has talked himself into the position of being just another politician in a country full of politicians.

You have the right to expect better judgment in a man who is reputed to be one of the front-running Republican candidates for President.

Romney's words make Richard Nixon's silence sound like thunder.

$127,550 Is Given to Health Dept.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller allocated a total of $127,550 from his contingency fund Wednesday for use by the state Health Department, the state Purchasing Department and the state Educational Television Commission.

The governor said $50,000 would be used to match federal funds needed to establish a new 12-member division of the Health Department to train personnel to inspect and license all emergency medical vehicles under the National Highway Safety Act program.

He said $43,050 would be used to set up the new marketing and state surplus property division of the Purchasing Department, which will have a staff of seven.

The remaining $34,500 will be used to match federal funds needed to purchase a special television tape recording machine needed by the ETV Commission.

Six Vietnam Civilian Candidates Want the Recent Election Voided

By BARRY KRAMER
SAIGON (AP) — Six civilian presidential candidates in South Vietnam asked the Constituent Assembly today to void the election of Nguyen Van Thieu, claiming they have evidence it was rigged.

"Each of us is making separate complaints. I have six," said Truong Dinh Dzu, the Saigon lawyer who ran second to Thieu and his running mate, Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, in the election last Sunday.

The government countered with charges that the Viet Cong electioneered on behalf of Dzu. The official government news in agency Vietnam Press quoted a captured Viet Cong to back up the charge.

Four of the candidates told newsmen they are joining with four others defeated in the elections to form an antigovernment front that does "not recognize these fraudulent elections."

"We are asking for a nationwide recount of all the provinces," Dzu said.

The assembly must rule by Oct. 2 on all charges of election irregularity. If it finds too many of them, it can nullify the election and call a new one.

Most of Saigon's Vietnamese-language newspapers printed an Associated Press report from Washington that expert official analysts there noted Dzu's areas of voting strength included some of the most insecure in South Vietnam and considered it conceivable that there was some Viet Cong support for him.

Vietnam Press claimed that police in Kien Giang Province had captured a Viet Cong agent whose "confession" said the Viet Cong had "ordered their subordinates to urge the people to vote for the Truong Dinh Dzu slate."

The agency said sources told it the Viet Cong had made the order because Dzu "is one of the friends of lawyer Nguyen Huu Tho, chairman of the South Vietnam National Liberation Front," the political arm of the Viet Cong.

Although U.S. officials in Saigon said there was no evidence to link Dzu with the Communists, he was Tho's defense attorney during trials under the French colonial regime and that of President Ngo Dinh Diem, and he also claims to be in touch with the central committee of the North Vietnamese Communist party and the National Liberation Front.

Parole for Woman Who Robbed Store

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Pardons and Parole Board granted a parole Wednesday to Joan Drummond Russell, 37, who was serving a three-year sentence for armed robbery.

The former Little Rock waitress was convicted of robbing a liquor store here in 1966 to raise money for her son, then an AWOL Marine, who was trying to get to Texas in an attempt to prevent his assignment to Vietnam.

Mrs. Russell said she obtained $339 in the robbery, which she conducted with an empty pistol. Her son later was discharged from the service, she said.

NLB Charges Firm Unfair

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Charges of unfair labor practices have been filed against the Acme Brick Co., of Malvern and Rands Inc., a wholesale grocery in North Little Rock.

Teamsters Union Local 878 told the National Labor Relations Board that Acme had refused to bargain collectively, and that Rands had discharged employee Jay Nichols because of union activity.

600,000 Students Out of Schools Closed by Teacher Strikes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Classes have been postponed for more than 600,000 youngsters as several of the nation's school systems have closed because of teacher salary disputes. The number could increase to more than two million by next week.

Detroit School Supt. Norman Drachler put off indefinitely today's scheduled school opening for 300,000 youngsters. In New York a deadlock continued toward a Monday deadline.

Michigan was the hardest hit of the states, with almost a half-million youngsters in some 17 districts on extended vacations "until further notice." Teachers picketed in some Michigan cities.

In New York the Board of Education accepted a proposal by Mayor John V. Lindsay's mediation panel for a two-year, $125-million contract between the teachers union and the board.

In a telegram to the United Federation of Teachers the board called for a membership vote on the proposal. The union agreed to the vote but predicted the rank and file would reject it as the negotiating team had ear-

They will be telling of the recent Israeli-Arab Conflict and their plans for the near future.

Brothers Hit, Killed by Car

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Michael Montez Lisiby, 6, and his brother, Stephen Lake Lisiby, 3, were killed Wednesday when they darted across U. S. 79 and were struck by a car driven by Louis C. Johnson, 51, of Fort Worth, Tex.

State Police said the accident occurred near the youngsters' home, about three miles south of here.

Certificates of Appreciation were given to, l. to r., Arthur Storch, Ralph Lehman, George Frazier, Dr. Lester Sites, Ralph Lehman, and Hubert Thrash on Tuesday at the Chamber of Commerce Board meeting. These certificates represented membership in the Committee of 100 organization and each person to whom they were presented have contributed $100.00 to a fund for industrial development. Others who have contributed to the fund will be presented their certificates at a special meeting very soon.

Woman Posts Bond in Shooting Case

DE QUEEN, Ark. (AP) — Mary Dickinson, about 53, of De Queen, wife of a state Welfare Board member, posted a $1,000 bond here Wednesday after being served with a warrant charging her with assault with intent to kill.

Mrs. Dickinson is charged in Sunday's shooting of Mary Jones, 37, of Nashville, a former head nurse at the Dickinson Hospital operated here by Mrs. Dickinson's husband, Dr. Roger Dickinson.

Mrs. Jones, wounded in the left leg, was in good condition at a Nashville hospital. The shooting took place at her home.

Suit Filed in Case of Chiropractor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. Kern E. Chester of Paragould should be forced to comply with an order issued June 15 by the Arkansas Board of Chiropractic Examiners, the board said in a suit filed in Circuit Court here Wednesday.

The board said it had voted in May to suspend Chester's chiropractic license for 60 days and to place him on probation for two years. Chester failed to appeal the order within 20 days from the date the order was issued, the board said.

The board said it had admonished Chester as early as June 1966 not to use advertising stating that examinations and X-rays were free of charge. He continued to use such advertising, the suit said, causing the board to conduct hearings here March 7 and May 28 this year.

Motorcycle-Car Wreck Fatal

CLARKSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — John B. Sheffield, 32, of Garden Grove, Calif., was killed Wednesday when his motorcycle collided with a car driven by Phillip Gregory, 20, of Clarksville.

State Police said Gregory was passing another car on U.S. 64, about three miles west of here, when he struck Sheffield, who was turning into a service station.

Gregory and a passenger in his car were not injured.

Ford Plants in 25 States Are Struck

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union struck Ford Motor Co. today, paralyzing operations in 25 states.

Negotiations were in recess with no new talks scheduled.

The walkout stopped production at Ford, which normally produces 8,000 cars a day, and raised the possibility of damage to its standing in the highly competitive market that General Motors and Chrysler will continue to feed with 1968 models.

As it lengthens, effects of the strike could spread through the steel, trucking and railroad industries which Ford uses heavily for materials and transport of its cars.

The company, second in size to GM in the automaking field, was last struck nationally in 1961.

Just 30 minutes before the Wednesday midnight expiration of the old three-year contract, Ford rejected a proposal by UAW President Walter P. Reuther for binding arbitration to dissolve the impasse.

By then, and with no sign of progress in eight weeks of bargaining, many of the UAW's 159,000 members at Ford plants already had walked off the job anticipating the strike.

President Johnson has said he fears the stoppage will damage the nation's economy.

Minutes after the strike began, Reuther told newsmen at Ford headquarters in suburban Dearborn that he was "most disappointed."

He had said earlier this year "this union is going to be tested like it has never been tested before," and he told the news conference: "I think Ford workers are able to stand the test."

Henry Ford II, board chairman and grandson of the company founder, assailed the walkout as "totally unjustified and completely unnecessary."

He called it "a bludgeon against the public interest," and "a tragic in its implications for the whole nation."

The gap between the opposing positions was reflected in another news conference when Ford's top bargainer, Malcolm Denise, was asked if the two sides ever came close to a settlement.

"I think I can answer that with a flat no," he said.

General Motors and Chrysler, the other members of the Big Three, also stiffened Wednesday to the union demands.

Local Woman Enters Not Guilty Plea

Texarkana—Seven of eight defendants entered pleas of guilty during arraignment proceedings Wednesday before Judge Oren Harris in Arkansas Federal Court.

One defendant, Mrs. Ada Faye Burns of Rt. 1, Patmos, Ark., pleaded not guilty. She is charged with possessing 403½ gallons of untaxed liquor.

Action in the ground war had been relatively light for about two months until early this week, when Communist forces began showing signs of readiness for renewed action in the northern zone defended by the Marines.

Marine officers said many of the Communist dead found on the battlefield today were new, freshly cleaned uniforms. Some of the equipment was brand new, including Chinese gas masks, field radios and submachine guns.

Although the Marines estimated that about 4,000 North Vietnamese were engaged in the fight, they identified elements of three units—the 1st, 3rd and 21st regiments of the 2nd Infantry Division. This meant that perhaps 9,000 Red troops were in the immediate area.

The battle apparently was joined when a Marine battalion on the move was struck on its right flank by a savage attack.

Marines Hit 4,000 Cong Troops

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Marines and about 4,000 newly equipped North Vietnamese troops fought a fierce engagement in the blood-stained Que Son Valley today in a continuation of a struggle that broke out Monday.

In four days, the U.S. Command reported killing 376 enemy troops, 226 of them in the latest fighting that began late Wednesday. Marine casualties totaled 114 killed and 282 wounded.

More than two battalions of Marines sweeping through the paddies and bamboo stands west of Tam Ky hit the Communist force late Wednesday. The battle raged through the night with the Marines and the North Vietnamese alternately charging.

There was frequent hand-to-hand fighting beneath the flickering yellow glow of parachute flares.

The battle raged less than a mile from the scarred field where 150 North Vietnamese soldiers were cut down Monday and Tuesday. The Reds have lost 338 killed and 23 captured in the valley in these two battles, and 219 Viet Cong were killed and 16 captured in an abortive attack on the town of Tam Ky early Wednesday.

Marine casualties in the Que Son valley fighting now total 124 killed and 278 wounded.

The battle 30 miles below Da Nang in the Northern War Zone was the only significant fight listed in the day's war communiqué. A storm over North Vietnam limited American air strikes Wednesday to 64—the leastest day in three months—but U.S. Air Force Thunderchiefs blew up tracks on the approaches to the Lang Con railroad bridge only 25 miles from the Red Chinese border.

U.S. headquarters reported 157 Americans died in action last week and 1,588 were wounded, about an average casualty figure despite the lull in the fighting during that period. But enemy casualties of 1,055 killed were reported, nearly 500 less than the week before and the lowest enemy total since last April.

The U.S. casualty totals were up from 125 reported killed and 1,078 wounded a week earlier. Enemy casualties last week were 1,507 in the previous week. The enemy total was the lowest since the week ending last April 22, when 980 were reported killed.

Action in the ground war had been relatively light for about two months until early this week, when Communist forces began showing signs of readiness for renewed action in the northern zone defended by the Marines.

Volunteers Help to Clean Slum

By TERRI SHAW
NEW YORK (AP) — On July 23 and 24, East 103rd Street was a battlefield. Platoons of policemen swept along the littered street with guns drawn. Sullen Puerto Rican youths threw bottles from the windows of tenement buildings. On Sept. 9, less than two months after the East Harlem riots which left two persons dead, 500 white, middle-class volunteers are set to move onto the East 103rd Street to help Negro and Spanish-speaking residents clean up the neighborhood.

The "work-in" is the culmination of a summer program sponsored by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of New York and the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity in slum areas throughout New York City.

The three-year-old "Summer in the City" program gets much of its dynamism from a tall, handsome priest who decided in the troubled summer of 1964 that "If we are going to do anything meaningful in the city, we have to take on the streets."

Msr. Robert J. Fox, 37, coordinator of Spanish community action for the archdiocese, has been working in the streets ever since, encouraging the poor to find within themselves "the kind of powerless force that makes a difference."

An example of this "powerless force," Msr. Fox said in an interview, was the series of religious marches, sponsored by the Archdiocese, that were credited with cooling off on those violent July nights. "El Barrio," as the 70,000 Puerto Ricans call their East Harlem neighborhood, is made up of 125 blocks of tenements, low income housing projects and small shops. It lies between Negro Harlem and the East River on Manhattan's Upper East Side.

"Summer in the City," with its 26 storefront headquarters costing about $300,000, does not sponsor classes, job training or athletics. Instead, neighborhood residents, brothers, nuns and lay volunteers fan out through troubled neighborhoods, talking to residents and trying to help them see ways of helping themselves.

Felt Sorry for Fellows in the Jail

WYNNE, Ark. (AP) — Henry Eagle, 23, of Wynne thought the 13 prisoners in the Cross County jail should get to celebrate the Labor Day holiday Monday, says Sheriff Kenneth Shaw.

So, the sheriff said he bought some beer and began hauling it up to a third-story window on a rope where the prisoners were. The operation cost Eagle $50 and five days in jail. The sheriff charged Eagle with disorderly conduct, removed the beer and replaced it with Eagle.
